

Partners in Prayer

January - February 2012

"Western literature has been more influenced by the BIBLE than any other book"

Thomas B. Macaulay

Praise:

- Praise that the teachers had a refreshing, safe holiday break and had some really quality family time.
- Praise that Bible history is able to legally be taught in the Hamilton County school system.

Prayer:

- Pray that Bible in the Schools will continue to receive the donations needed to fulfill our commitment to the Hamilton County Department of Education.
- Pray that God will direct in the scheduling of the students for this next term.
- Pray for the new principal at Hixson High School, Lee Sims.
- Pray for the health and safety of the Bible history teachers and their families.
- Pray for safety in our schools.
- Pray for the continued work of the Bible History teachers in developing teaching guidelines and assessments.
- Pray for the teachers to have good relationships with the new students as school begins on January 9. Pray that God will use them to help enrich and guide these young people.
- Pray for the students as they return from the holidays to be able to get back into the swing of school quickly.
- Pray for the seniors who will tend to not work as hard this last semester of high school.
- Pray for the students of Red Bank High School, who lost their guidance counselor to death over the holidays.
- Pray that just the right resources will be identified to assist with multiple Gatherings in 2012. We also pray for discernment in identifying the communities which will best respond to Gathering opportunities.
- Pray for the upcoming Celebration Luncheon in late February.
